Announcements for Wed. May 5th, 2021

Hey Carson, we've made it halfway through Mental Health Week! Here are five golden rules for being there for your community: 1) Say what you see and start the conversation. 2) Show someone that you care. 3) Hear them out. 4) Know your role. 5) Connect to help! If you're not sure how to approach these golden rules or want to learn more about being a mental health advocate, message Jack.org's Instagram: @jackdotorgcg

Attention grades 10, 11 and 12's, are you interested in learning about scholarships? Join us tonight at 7PM for a presentation by the GrantMe organization to learn how to win scholarships. Check out your Epic site for details how to sign up or talk to your grade counsellor.
