a place of mind
THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Although UBC's application deadline has passed, some programs are still accepting applications. Remaining program applications may close at any time without notice, so please encourage your students to submit their applications as soon as possible.

Here are some important updates to keep in mind as we proceed through admissions season.

Self-reporting

The self-reporting period will be open from March 3 to March 20. Students will receive an email from UBC outlining what information they will need to self-report.

- Students in a semestered curriculum will be asked to report their grades for semester 1 as soon as possible.
- Students in a linear curriculum will have until April 14 to report their grades, if they receive a later term 2 report card.

Offers of admission are rolling, so we encourage your students to self-report their grades as soon as they are available. IB Diploma students are not required to self-report. IB coordinators will submit anticipated grades directly to UBC.

UBC will be hosting a Facebook live session to answer any questions about self-reporting on Tuesday, March 7, 4:15 – 5:00 pm (PST). Our Admissions Blog also covers details about self-reporting.

English Language Admission Standard

All UBC applicants must meet the English Language Admission Standard (ELAS). There are a number of ways to meet this requirement, but the most common ways include:

- Completing three years of full-time English curriculum studies in Canada
- Completing four years of full-time English curriculum studies outside of Canada
- Achieving a minimum score on an English language proficiency test

Summer program deadline

UBC offers high school students the opportunity to experience the university setting on the Vancouver campus with two-week summer programs: Future Global Leaders and Experience University Life.

The deadline to apply for Canadian students is April 30, and the deadline for international students is June 30.

Campus tours

We continue to offer weekly campus tours on our Okanagan and Vancouver campuses, and are able to accommodate school group tours.

You can also learn more about programs, services, and spaces available for Aboriginal students on our Vancouver campus. Please connect with Chloe Erlendson, at chloe.erlendson@ubc.ca, to arrange a tour for Aboriginal students.

If your students are unable to make it to our campuses, they can take a virtual campus tour.

Thank you for supporting your students through the next stage of their admissions process.

Sincerely,
