Inviting all 3-5 year-olds to come and play!

Ready, Set, Learn

The North Vancouver School District welcomes 3-5 year-olds with their parents, guardians, childcare providers, or early childhood educators to Ready, Set, Learn – a free early learning event funded by the BC Ministry of Education.

The Ready, Set, Learn initiative is aimed at helping preschoolers get ready for school. It recognizes that families need to establish positive connections with schools and early learning community partners who provide resources and information.

When you attend one of the North Vancouver School District's Ready, Set, Learn events, your child will receive a reusable tote bag, which will include a book, notebook, paint block, sponge and crayon.
