

Announcements for Mon. Apr. 10th, 2017

Would you like to win an eggcellent prize? Come down to the Eagles nest at lunch to give your best guess at how many chocolate eggs could be yours for only fifty cents a guess! Good luck!

Congratulations to the Carson delegation to the Vancouver Round of the World Scholar's Cup, which took place at Mulgrave over the weekend. As fine examples of Open-Minded, Inquiring Risk-Takers, our delegation participated in three rounds of debate, as well as collaborative writing and explorations of unfamiliar curricula, doing Carson proud. Well done Qasim Bhaloo, Alice Sambatti, Anna Markovic, Zohrah Khalili, Liam Olsen, Abiel Kim, and Amir Mosadeghzad

Virtual Solitaire is on now. Only 3 shows left. Reserve your seats at tickets@CarsonGraham.ca. Virtual Solitaire starts at 7pm sharp and is a look into the shady side of game design. Come and see your amazing actors portray video game characters from the story of a murder mystery at an asylum. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday only!

There will be a mandatory Mountain Bike Team meeting Tuesday April 11th at Lunch in the large gym.

Ms. Van Baalen would like to see all those Rowing this spring briefly at the beginning of lunch on Wednesday in D106.

Here's is your marine Monday fact provided by the Ocean Ambassadors club. With the current rate of sea levels rising, New Orleans and Miami will be underwater within a hundred years.

The following clubs are to meet in D106 at the beginning of lunch tomorrow to have their photo taken for the yearbook.
