

Announcements for Tues. Apr. 4th, 2017

Students going to Redpatch meet in the Agora at 12:00.

Any grade 12 students who have not had their heights recorded for graduation rentals, please go see Mr. Bolivar or Ms. McDowell by the end of this week.

Congratulations to our Junior Boys rugby team who thumped Handsworth after school yesterday by a resounding score of 32-0. Leading the way was our entire forward pack, who repeatedly exposed the weaknesses in their opposite numbers. Well done! Practice after school today.

Any students who registered for the Duke of Edinburgh award, please see Mr. Olson Wednesday at lunch. We will be going over some important information. - Please also bring your Duke of Edinburgh booklet!

Attention, grade 8 students playing football this spring: There will be an information meeting Wednesday at lunch in the large gym. See you there!

If you are interested in volunteering for your hours or just for personal experience Queen Mary is running a Basketball after school program starting next week. It is run by Gabe Gibbs who actually works with NBA teams as a skills trainer and played college ball in the states. The program runs from 3:10 - 5:10 on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays – Please see Ms. Dohm for sign up.

Order your seats for Virtual Solitaire now at tickets@carsongraham.ca. Virtual Solitaire is a dark thriller about a video game Beta-test gone wrong. Mature content. $8. Opens Saturday night and runs Monday Tuesday Wednesday next week.

Junior Improv teams, calling all Junior improv teams. We will have an all-teams meeting in the theatre tomorrow to distribute your team shirts and talk about next season. Junior improv meeting tomorrow at 1:15.

Want to distract your parents immediately after the Parent Teacher Meetings? Your Ottawa bound, National Silver-medal winning improv team will have a fund raising show 8pm, right after the PTI's. Come and see what all the hype is about. One show only with $10 tickets featuring special guests from Vancouver Theatre Sports League on Granville Island.