

Announcements for Fri. Apr. 7th, 2017

Attn all Carson students. Please note - Parent teacher interviews have now been rescheduled for Thursday, Apr. 20th.

Would you like to win an eggcellent prize? Come down to the Eagles nest at lunch to give your best guess at how many chocolate eggs could be yours for only fifty cents a guess! Good luck!

Any grade 12 students who have not had their heights recorded for grad gown rentals, please go see Mr. Bolivar or Ms. McDowell today.

Attention all grade 9 rugby players. There will a meeting today at break in the large gym. It is about our game schedule next week.

CONGRATULATIONS to the Junior Ultimate Team for breaking a the curse and winning Carson's first ultimate game in 3 years! Some outstanding work by all the players carried them to a 13-8 victory over Argyle! Way to go Eagles!

Huge thanks from the Varsity Improv team to all those who came out and had a great time at our fundraising show. The lights were on and the laughter was amazing. Great show! Please check out the Carson Graham Improv Facebook page for information on our last big fundraiser event, Thursday April 13 and the Go Fund Me campaign.

Have you seen the posters? You are invited to a special preview of Virtual Solitaire today at 3:30. Virtual Solitaire opens Saturday night and is the story of a Virtual Reality game design gone wrong. Think (like) an episode of Black Mirror from the point-of-view of the designer. The game is a first-person-shooter-mystery. There has been a murder at an asylum. Come and see your Senior Drama class create characters both VR & RL in Virtual Solitaire. $1 preview today at 3:30. Opening night Saturday. Reserve your tickets now at tickets@carsongraham.ca.
