

Announcements for Wed. Dec. 14th, 2016

On the 16th of December my teachers and CI gave to me

12 plus teachers cooking

11 eggs a scrambling

10 sausages a sizzling

9 oranges a juicin'

8 hot chocolates' warming

7 am breakfast serving

6 choirs a singing

5 GOLDEN PANCAKES

4 ugly sweaters

3 teacher solos

2 dollar instant photos

and Santa is MR. BRADYYYYYYYYYYYYYYY

Hey Carson, do want to see singers, dancers, improv, and other awesome acts. Then come see the Self Xpress Talent Show. The show is TODAY in the theatre at 6:30. Tickets are being sold in the agora today at lunch and at the theatre before the show for $5, be sure to come and support your talented fellow students"

The Homework club is open again today after school. Drop by if you need help. It's best to get your homework and studying done before the winter break!

Student council would like to remind everyone that Friday is ugly sweater day!

Carson's Mental Wellness Club presents The Gratitude Tree.

Across from the Library sits a beautiful tree that we hope to cover with white peace doves.

These peace doves will represent something that you are grateful for in your life. Please join us at lunch this week in front of the library to fill out your peace dove, something or someone that you are grateful for and place it on the tree. Did you know that the act of gratitude, being thankful, actually helps to give us higher levels of alertness, enthusiasm and energy. It helps us to improve our self esteem and self confidence as well. Stop by our Gratitude tree and learn about other ways that Gratitude can improve your well being.

To all members of 8-12 vocal jazz, there will be no practice today at 4:30. Have a great holiday. Mr. Lo