

Announcements for Fri. June 9th, 2017

It's time for the chicks to head out to the farm. So today is your last chance to see them and take pictures! Come to room D301 outside of class time.

Closing Sale at the eagles nest!! Buy one and get 50% off everything in the store!! Hurry before product runs out!!

Fearless - A Girls Empowerment Camps offered in either July or August for girls currently in Gr. 8, 9, 10. Please see Mrs. Weyell for additional info or registration forms.

Canadian Red Cross Babysitting Course
Babysitting in a Day - An interactive fun course for youth aged 11- 15years old. For more info see Mrs. Weyell.

Grads who are planning on attending the banquet on the 29th must bring their receipts to the library at lunch today to choose their tables. Please bring your grad ceremony receipts to Mr. Bolivar or Ms. McDowell to receive ceremony tickets. There are still some grads who have not submitted ceremony last words or baby photos. A list is posted outside the library

Don't forget grads that the mandatory grad ceremony rehearsal will take place in the gym during block 5 on Monday, June 12th. Please go to your regular block 5 class, and we will call you down to the gym. All grads planning to attend ceremony must come to rehearsal. You will be given your grad gown at this time if your fees are paid. Please also bring $2 for the grad gift.

Yearbooks are going fast ! Once they are sold out there will be no way to get a copy of this amazing Carson keepsake. Bring 50 dollars to the main office to get your 2017 yearbook TODAY!

Library books are due back today! Please check all your lockers and at home for library books and bring them back as soon as possible.