

Announcements for Wed. Nov. 2nd, 2016

Are you passionate about human rights? Would you like to learn more about human rights issues locally and around the world and discuss ways that we can part of the solution? If so, then the Justice club is for you. Our first meeting today in room D305. See you there!

Don't forget to check out the Girls' Group and Gentlemen's Club today at lunchtime for games, casual discussion and FREE PIZZA with your resident youth workers! Both groups will be held in the foods rooms, with the Girls' Group in room B105 and the Gentlemen's Club in room B107. All grades are welcome but please get there early to reserve your spot and your pizza. Hope to see you there!

Friday, at home, the Varsity Football team play their final game. They will be playing Mount Douglas Rams in the first league game between AAA and AA defending champions. The game begins at 2pm. Come on out, wear red and cheer loud to support the grade 12's in their final game.

The homework club is open today after school in the Library. Please come by if you need help with learning or homework. The homework club is cancelled for Thursday because there are parent teacher interviews.

Congratulations to the Juvenile Girls Volleyball Team for defeating Sentinel in the Quarter Finals yesterday in three straight sets! The girls all played hard and are now in the Semi-Finals this Thursday. Come out and cheer them on.

Attention all Carson Cadets... We need you for Remembrance Day! Please sign up in the Main office this week and then attend a quick meeting at the break on Friday (this will be at 12 due to the altered schedule) in the Main Office. See you there!

Grad council is having a bake sale at lunch today. Come and support them.
