COURSE OUTLINE – DP SPANISH AB INITIO

Course Description:

Spanish ab initio (SL) is a two-year course that has been designed for students who do not have any prior knowledge of the language but wish to study Spanish as their Language B. The language ab initio course is organized into three themes; individual and society, leisure and work, and urban and rural environment. Each theme has a list of topics that provide the students with opportunities to practice and explore the language as well as to develop intercultural understanding. Through the development of receptive, productive and interactive skills, students should be able to respond and interact appropriately in a defined range of everyday situations.

Assessment Objectives:

There are five assessment objectives for the language ab initio course. Students will be assessed on their ability to:

1. demonstrate an awareness and understanding of the intercultural elements related to the prescribed topics
2. communicate clearly and effectively in a range of situations
3. understand and use accurately the basic structures of the language
4. understand and use an appropriate range of vocabulary
5. use a register and a format that are appropriate to the situation.

BC Ministry Requirements:

In line with the philosophy of the IB Diploma Programme, students will be assessed against the course objectives at their current level of achievement on the 7-point scale throughout the course. As required by the Ministry of Education, students will also be given a percentage converted from the IB level that reflects their achievement in relation to the corresponding BC Curriculum course.

Approaches to Learning (ATL)

Approaches to learning across the Diploma Programme refer to deliberate strategies, skills and attitudes which are intrinsically linked with the learner profile attributes, enhance student learning and assist student preparation for the Diploma Programme assessment and beyond.

The five approaches to learning categories in the DP are:

- thinking skills
- social skills
- communication skills
- self-management skills
- research skills

Development of these skills are key to success in the Diploma Programme and will be formally and informally taught and assessed.

Academic Honesty and Personal Integrity

The faculty at Carson Graham expects our students to complete academic and nonacademic work that is authentic and respectful of intellectual property. As diploma candidates, you are expected to adhere to the school's Policy for Academic Integrity, and also to the principles and practices set out in the IB document, Diploma Programme: Academic Honesty, 2011. Ignorance of the standards related to academic honesty and student integrity is not an excuse for dishonesty, plagiarism and malpractice. You are expected to familiarize yourself with the policy.
