

Daily Announcements: January 8, 2018

Overdue On-line Forms: Why can't you go with your class on a walking field trip? Why isn't your picture in the school yearbook? It might be because your online permission forms have not been completed. A list of students whose online forms are not done has been posted on the office window. If your name is on the list, drop by the office. Let's get these done!

Meatless Monday: Meatless Monday takes place today in a number of high schools, hospitals and post-secondary schools across the Lower Mainland, among them UBC, SFU, Capilano University, BCIT and Langara College. Every six seconds, one person is taking the pledge to go vegan for the whole month of Veganuary (January). Already, over 100,000 people have signed up. Check out veganuary.com, if you are curious about this life-changing movement and why so many people are jumping on board in 2018. Today's special in the caf is Cheese Tortellini with your choice of tomato or Alfredo sauce, or both, for only $3.50! Come by our table in front of the caf to answer a 2-question survey for a chance to win a free meal from the caf!

Diversity Club: Diversity club has a meeting today, Monday, at lunch in the Theatre. All LGBTQ+ students and straight allies are welcome.

Grads: Your yearbook write-up is due tomorrow--January 9. This means you have the break to come up with something meaningful. See Ms. Smyth or the office for the write-up guidelines.

Career, Post Secondary and Volunteer Opportunities:

Scholarship Opportunities: Do you plan on attending the University of Manitoba? There is a $16,000 scholarship available. Do you work for Burger King? There is a scholarship available. The Scholarship Opportunities list has been updated in the portal and on the Scholarship Information bulletin board in the library—with deadline dates in through to February.

Grade 12 Schulich Leader Scholarship: Any student wishing to be considered for the Schulich Leader Scholarship must submit their letter of intent and application form by Friday, January 12. If you have questions, see Mrs. Turner or Mr. Nevison.

University of Saskatchewan: 150 Bachelor of Engineering program seats have been added. Registration is open now. See Mrs. Macario for more information.

Talk at the Top: This is a youth-led and driven summit on mental health leadership. This year's event takes place in The Observatory on Grouse Mountain on Friday, January 26. This is the semester turnaround day, so you do not have classes. If you are interested, google "Talk at the Top 2018."

Artists for Kids: High school students are offered free art assistant training on January 17, 24 and 31, 2018. There will be three 1-1/2 hour workshops that will develop the skills to qualify participants as AFK art assistants and day camp assistant or counsellors. See Ms. Abad in B204 for more details.

Bricks4Kidz North Vancouver: Students are needed as party, event and camp junior instructors that will support their lead teaches and Kids Night Out programs. Their classes teach the fundamentals of STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics) education. If you love working with children, grew up loving LEGO, have a passion for education, are a punctual team member and would like to earn $11.50-$14.00/hour, apply now. Visit the Bricks4Kidz website or see Ms. Abad.
