

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What documentation should my child bring on the Quebec trip?

Canadian Citizens under the age of 18 years:

An original birth certificate, passport or non-government issued ID (e.g. a student card) is suggested. ID upon check-in (see <https://www.publicsafety.gc.ca/cnt/ntnl-scr/cntr-trrrsm/pssngr-prtct/dcmnts-en.aspx> for valid government issued identification documents).

Non-Canadian travellers:

Electronic airline tickets require your passport or Canadian government issued I.D. (e.g. PR Card)

Note: The name you provide for the airline ticket must be the same as the name on the legal travel document your child is travelling with.

