- Yesterday was red dress day. Red dress day started 15 years ago when a Metis artist Jaime Black hung red dresses as a point of awareness for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls and Two-Spirit People. Every year on May 5th, people across Canada hang red dresses and wear red to raise awareness and honour the memories for all the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls and Two-Spirit People across Canada.
- Congratulations to the Junior Ultimate team for a season of spirit, sportsmanship, and success!

The Juniors earned first place in their division and during yesterday's NSSAAA Championship won the banner! Their final game against West Vancouver was won on the last play of the game - a single point required to break the tie and take first place overall. Next up...the BCU Junior High School Championships at the end of May. Go Pipers!"

With their third-place finish during yesterday's NSSAAA tournament, Argyle Senior Ultimate has earned a berth into the Vancouver Sea to Sky Championships this Friday at InterRiver Park. Congratulations Senior Ultimate for advancing in the playoffs. We wish you all the best for continued success!

- There will be a brief meeting for all members of the mountain bike team today at lunch in room 205.
- Good morning, Argyle, do you love laughter and live theatre? Argyle Drama proudly presents an original mask-comedy, The Wrong Show, taking the stage in the James Buchannan Theatre starting tonight until Friday. Doors open at 6:30; show starts at 7PM. Tickets are available on the school website and selling out fast! Break a leg!
