

AFK Art News

February commemorates Black History Month. Below are a variety of resources that explores the black diaspora and their experiences as African Americans and Black Canadians in North America. This issue provides access to both historical and contemporary resources from a range of disciplines such as history, music, theatre and visual culture.

- Roland Hayes, African American classical singer \(Tenor\)
- Marianne Anderson, Contralto
- Being Black in Canada
- Alvin Ailey American Dance Theatre
- CBC Books:
 - 25 Books About Being Black in Canada
 - Seven Black Canadian Writers to Watch
 - 16 books by Black Canadian authors to read in honour of Emancipation Day 2022
- Time: The Renaissance is Black: The 25 Defining Works of the Black Renaissance
- Artnews: Dean's List: Swizz Beatz and Alicia Keys Focus on Collecting African-American Art
- The Los Angeles Times: How the Black Radical Female Artists of the '60s and '70s Made Art that Speaks to Today's Politics
- Art21: Nick Cave
- Art21: Portraying the Black American Experience:
- The Studio Museum in Harlem
- Celebrating Black Canadian Poets
- Here We Are Here: Black Canadian Contemporary Art
- 10 Black Canadian artists to follow and celebrate
- 11 Contemporary Black Artists You Should Know
- The Tempest: 21 Black Female Poets to Add to Your Bookshelf
- Examining the work of Thomas J Price

Notes/emojis to the Editor:

Do you have a suggestion, a note/comment or an emoji you want to send the editor? Contact AFK Art News at: mramen@sd44.ca

Disclaimer: AFK Art News provides a broad overview showcasing national and international art and cultural events, exhibitions and topics of interest. The intention is to be light and engaging. The target audience for this newsletter are secondary school teachers.