

Artists for Kids and Gordon Smith Gallery

2023/2024 Notebook

Artists for Kids is a program like no other in Canada. It offers an immersive, interactive, hands-on introduction to the magical world of art.

- Michelle Didier, Teacher, École Cleveland Elementary

The power to allow our dreams into being, truly reflects the essence of Artists for Kids. After 34 years of learning, growing and sharing with each other, we are so proud to be where we are today.

We have become storytellers for the arts. Beginning with the smallest of gestures of connection, to the dream of bringing a community together through our gallery, Artists for Kids places positive and supportive relationships in the center of what we do. Our gallery and programs offer time and space through the visual arts, to nurture belonging and to share and learn from the stories that each of us hold.

Artists for Kids has learned that relationship is essential in all that we do. We are intentional to design welcoming places of learning that place connection at the center of our practice through an ethic of care. We are also committed to building capacity for intercultural understanding, empathy and mutual respect within our programming, with a specific highlight on the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada's Call to Action #63.

Artists for Kids would like to acknowledge the continued support of the NVSD Board of Education, our donors, our outstanding volunteers and the commitment of the Gordon and Marion Smith Foundation and its staff. Truly, Artists for Kids exists because of the commitment and support of our community; we are grateful.

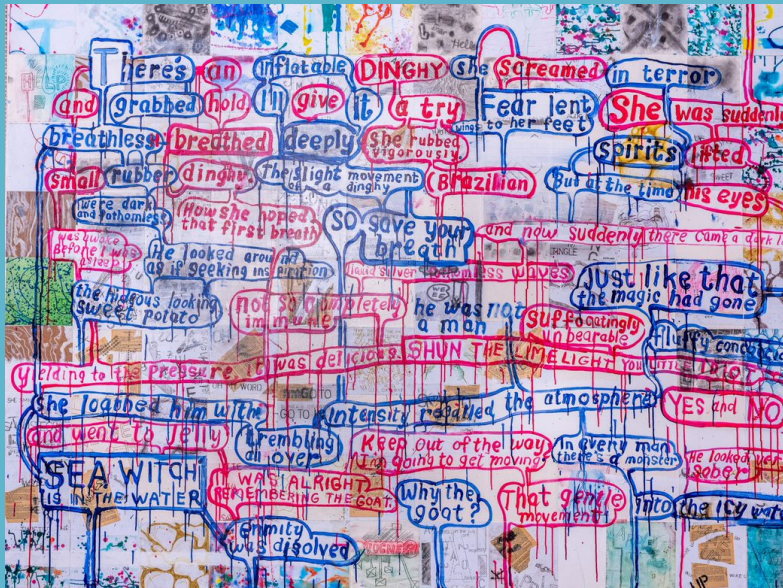

We hope, that the Artists for Kids' Notebook will become for you, your child or your classroom, a resource of possibility, to dream ourselves into being, by allowing each other to learn, relearn, share and grow together.

The perspectives and artistic conversations of elementary and secondary school students will be featured through original writing and art.

Contemporary Canadian artists Clare Yow, Manuel Axel Strain, Parvin Peivandi, Lexy Ho-Tai, and Karin Jones have been invited to show their work alongside artists from the Artists for Kids' Permanent Collection, which includes from Graham Gillmore, Angela Grossman, Bill Reid, Kenojuak Ashevak, and Attila Richard Lukacs.

Prevailing Landscapes is an exploration into the iconic Canadian Landscape; it has been the central theme to our country's visual artworks since the 19th century, and it remains a critical theme in countless works today. The landscape is one element in our country's framework that holds few social, ethnic, cultural, gender specific boundaries. It is physically vast and offers a visual backdrop for art throughout different periods and genres. Historically we have engaged with the Canadian landscape through the male gaze - a romanticized colonial perspective of the great Canadian wilderness, but how has that perspective changed in contemporary conceptual art works and how have the landscapes added to the narratives of these works?

Limited Edition Prints

Artists for Kids was founded by educators in 1989, with the singular intent to support Arts Education. Fast forward over three decades, it is extraordinary what can be possible when together, we have a collective vision and we don't give up!

Guided by the AFK Acquisition Committee, the funding model begins by supporting Canadian artists with an acquisition of their work. This acquisition becomes part of the AFK Permanent Collection at The Gordon Smith Gallery of Art and is used in our acclaimed Gallery Program. In turn, the artist donates their expertise to create an original print, photograph or sculpture. As publishers, AFK uses the limited edition of this multiple to sell, with proceeds funding educational programs, art camps for teachers and students, scholarships, and future acquisitions.

Thanks to the exceptional inspiration of our founding patron artists Gordon Smith, Jack Shadbolt and Bill Reid, AFK's educational programs offers some of Canada's most significant art curriculums. Bill Reid created the first print over 30 years ago and, with some of Canada's most renowned artists following his example, the collection has steadily grown into a significant art portfolio offering collectors a unique opportunity to support cultural growth in Vancouver's communities.

Please consider acquiring a print for your home, a family member or friend, or your work space (including a purchase on behalf of your school!). The work is a timeless article, held and passed through generations. Acquiring work is also an investment in the arts, supporting artists and arts programming, and building community and understanding, through the story of the arts.
