28th Annual Paradise Valley School of Visual Art Summer Visual Arts Camp

July 10 - 14, 2023

Charlene Vickers

July 10 to 14, 2023 • Ages 8 - 15

Young artists ages 8 - 15 will explore their surroundings with artist Charlene Vickers in the beautiful setting of Paradise Valley. This environment provides an ideal source to explore concepts of form and color. Students will receive in-depth instruction in collage, drawing, painting and printmaking. Working in small studio groups, teachers emphasize individual skill development and artistic style. This week long studio program is well balanced with outdoor recreation and studio time.

Charlene Vickers is an Anishinaabe artist based in Vancouver. Her painting, sculpture and performance works explore memory, healing and embodied connections to ancestral lands.

Charlene is the recipient of the VIVA Award in 2018, and most recently exhibitions include a solo exhibition at the University of Saskatchewan in 2022 and Contemporary Art Gallery in Vancouver in 2021. Charlene Vickers graduated Emily Carr University of Art and Design in 1994, and Simon Fraser University in Critical Studies of the Arts in 1998). She earned her MFA from SFU in 2013.

Outdoor studio adventures for young artists with teams of experienced art teachers and Canada's finest artists plus guest artist visits and daily recreation activities including:

canoeing, hiking, archery, cave exploration, a campfire singalong and a variety of fun filled outdoor games

- all in the beautiful 460 acre setting of the Cheakamus Centre situated near Squamish, B.C.
- fully supervised by professional teaching staff
- 5 hours/day of studio art
- 2 artist presentations
- scholarship and bursaries available
- five days and four nights
