

Announcements for Wed. Dec. 16, 2020

ATTN Parents: We still have one Nike rain jacket and also 2 scooters in the office. If your student is missing either of these, please have them come to the office and identify, or they will be donated.

A friendly reminder to all of our Boys Club Network members that we have our meeting in room E202 right after school today. Come hungry and ready to talk and learn. Again, a reminder that we have our Boys Club Network meeting in room E202. After school today in room E202. Don't be late!

Carson the yearbook team is running a photo contest for the best winter photo. Please submit your best winter photo to Ms. Bowcott by Jan 30th for a chance to win!

Thursday: Holiday Apparel Day. Swap your regular clothes and dress in a holiday theme. We are encouraging staff and students to choose a holiday theme and take a photo- maybe even an elfie.

Friday: Ugly Sweater Day

Staff and students are invited to pop by the Agora at lunch for a photo in their ugly sweaters. One, two, tree, smile!

Hey Carson! Are you looking to learn more about how this year's pandemic has affected youth mental health worldwide, and how we can overcome its negative effects on our health and well being? Then join the Carson Graham Interact Club this Saturday, December 19th, from 11 AM to 12 PM PST, for their "Mental Health and the Pandemic" Talk! Sign up now at the link posted on your EPIC Teams channel on Tuesday, December 15th, or look for bright blue posters around the school to scan their QR codes! We look forward to seeing you all there!
