

Announcements for Mon. Dec. 7, 2020

The yearbook team is running an ugly sweater day photo booth on December 18th at lunch in the agora! Wear your ugliest holiday sweater and be photographed by the team to bring the holiday cheer to Carson!

The youth to sea toy drive is the perfect way to give back to your community. Over the next week feel free to drop off any used toys or books (provided they are clean and in good condition). Spread some holiday cheer, donate your toys. Locate the drive outside the office (Bin in marked "Toy Drive")

Hey Grads, The Grad Council has organized a group contest which will be starting at the end of next week. Team up with 4 to 6 of your friends and compete in a series of 5 group contests for a chance. To sign up you can come grab a form from the office or sign up online via a google doc which can be found on the epic channel or the grad Instagram. Sign up is due by Tuesday the 8th of December. More information will be announced on the grad Instagram and epic page on teams.

Hey Carson, spread positivity this winter season? Join wings club in the making of a Holiday Kindness Card for a senior at a local long term care home. brighten their day and promote connection during COVID-19!
