

Announcements for Tues. May 4th, 2021

May the 4th be with you, Carson! Today is May the 4th. To celebrate, the Carson Library is offering a contest with a Star Wars themed prize. For every student book checkout today only we will put your name in a draw for a prize of a Millenium Falcon Book Light. Come and check out our Star Wars book display!

Hey Carson, this week is Mental Health Week! 1200 young Canadians were surveyed and 83% had said that they knew of a friend struggling with mental health, but only 39% had felt prepared or equipped to support them. Now more than ever, it's important to recognize and take initiative on situations regarding mental health in our community. If you want to learn more about what you can do to better your community or want to become a mental health advocate at Carson, message Jack.org's Instagram: @jackdotorgc

Attention grades 10, 11 and 12's, are you interested in learning about scholarships? Join us on Wednesday at 7PM for a presentation by the GrantMe organization to learn how to win scholarships. Check out your Epic site for details how to sign up or talk to your grade counsellor.

Attention all boys club members, we are changing the days of our meeting to Thursdays after school. If you are interested in attending our Boys club meeting please meet us next Thursday after school in room E202. Boys club is a mentorship group providing support, scholarships, and mentorship to Carsons young men.

Hi Carson. Student Council elections deadline is May 7. Sign up sheets are in front of the office and counsellors office.
