

Announcements for May 7, 2026

Attention students and staff: there has been a suspicious plant sighting at Carson Graham. The Science departments is trying to figure this out.

Reports say it sings, it talks, and it may or may not be trying to take over the world.

Come see what all the trouble is about in Carson Graham's production of Little Shop of Horrors, running to Saturday night, May 9th.

Shows start at 7:30 PM, and tickets are $15.

Bring your friends, bring your family, and prepare yourself for music, comedy, chaos, and one very hungry plant.

Senior Girls Badminton took a thrilling 4–3 win over Collingwood at playoffs yesterday! Shoutout to Amy and Synthia for their coordinated and witty play. The intense silence of the last game ended with waves of roaring cheers with Cheska and Vanette sealing the victory for Carson. The Eagles head to Bodwell today for semifinals against Handsworth. Let's give them love and support as they push forward. Go Eagles!
