

Announcements for Sept. 24, 2025

The Theatre will be closed today for lunch as Production students train for Coffeehouse tomorrow and Terry Fox on Friday. All coffeehouse performers, please be in the theatre at lunch today for a sound check.

Have you every wanted to be a hero? A knight in shining armour? A spell-casting Wizard? A sneaky-sneaky Rogue? A cleric healing their downed friends? Have you ever wanted to slay dragons, explore dungeons, and work together to save a town from goblins and giant spiders? Have you ever wanted to learn to play the tabletop role playing game Dungeons and Dragons? Well, you certainly can! Come and join Carson's D&D Club, starting up Wednesday at lunch in A205! Is it Wednesday yet?

All students are welcome to live music in the first Coffeehouse of the year. Coffeehouse is a long tradition here at Carson of talented students and those brave enough to try to share their talents perform in a free lunchtime show. Bring your lunch to the Theatre on Thursday, room A106.

Do you play, violin, Viola, cello, or upright bass? JOIN OUR STRING ENSEMBLE!!! Message Saman Khosravi on teams or look up CGSS Strings (no spaces) on instagram and give us a message!

Are you interested in making cards and bracelets for children at the Vancouver children's hospital to make their day brighter? Join us in E308 (Mr. Bjornson's room) every Thursday at lunch to make them with us.

Congratulations to the Senior Boys Soccer Team for defeating Argyle 2–1 yesterday in their season opener! It was an outstanding team effort. A big shoutout to Mariano Diaz Alcazar, Adam Macrae, Ayden Liljefors, Behrad Sharifi, Kaleb Otuomagie, and Alessandro La Scala.

GO EAGLES!

Don't forget Carson, INTRAMURALS ARE BACK! Make a co-ed team of 7-10 people to play 5v5 basketball at lunch! More information and the link to sign up is on MS Teams. Registration is open until Friday (Sep 26) and games will start the following week.
