

Announcements for April 18th, 2019

There are still a LOT of course selection sheets to be picked up in the office. Come and get them please!

April is National Poetry month. To celebrate, the Library is holding a "Blackout Poem Contest" - where you create your own poetry using a black marker and a piece of text. The prize for the winning poem is a Carson Graham sweatshirt. Come and check it out!

Attention all Grads! Your exit interviews are getting close! Please check the roster outside of counselling for your name and room number. If your name is not included on any of the lists, please see Mrs. Marshall ASAP. Remember, this interview is part of your graduation requirement!

Last day for the bake sale supporting homeless shelters in downtown at lunch in the Agora.

Are monsters good at math? Not unless you Count Dracula. Calling all Mathletes vs. Athletes, there will be grad yearbook photos at the beginning of lunch today in D106, aka the yearbook room.

Attention all girls who played basketball this past season in grades 8 to 11. There will be a girls spring basketball meeting on Tuesday, April 23 at 1pm in the large gym.

There is a very important meeting for all spring league boys basketball players in Mr Thornhill's room at lunch today. Those interested in playing should be there.

Attention grade 8 students, the buddy lists will be posted outside of counselling by the end of the day. Please record your buddy's first and last name. If there are any problems or your name is not on the list, come see Mrs. Robb or Ms Fletcher right away.
