

Announcements for Apr. 6th, 2018

Are you interested in taking your knowledge of physics to the next level? There will be two physics contests held this year at Carson: the Canadian Association of Physicists (CAP) Contest on April 11 and the Sir Isaac Newton Contest on May 3rd. Winners are awarded with cash prizes and potentially entrance scholarships into the University of Waterloo. The last day to sign up for the CAP contest is today! For more information and to sign up, please talk to Ms. Li in room B213.

Carson is partnering to support an important event called 44Dress, this is event gathers age appropriate dresses and other outfits for girls to wear to their Grade 7 Farewell event. While we firmly believe that 'it's not what you wear, it's how you feel', that is most important, we know that a special outfit can go a long way to boost self-esteem. Girls please take time to go through your closet and see if you have an outfit that you can donate to put a smile in a Gr. 7 girls face. We will start collecting this week in front of the Fishbowl across from the Library everyday at lunch until April 23rd. Spread the word Carson!

Hey Carson! Are you a motivated, inspired and organized leader? Do you want to improve your resume or university application? Join the Carson Graham Interact Executive team! As an executive member of the Interact Club, a globally recognized organization, you will have the chance to lead a group of students in planning and undertaking initiatives that affect lives both locally and globally. You can find applications outside of Mr. Bjornson's room E308. Applications are due on Friday April 13th.

Girls rugby meeting in the large gym at lunch today.

Today is the last day for Cityfest auditions. They are held from 3:30-6:00 at the North Shore Alliance Church.

Parent Teacher Student interviews are next Thursday. Students interested in helping out are asked to sign up in the main office. This is separate from being teacher secretaries.
