International Day of Pink is on Wednesday, April 9th. This annual event aims to raise awareness and promote solidarity against homophobic and transphobic bullying. We encourage you to wear pink on this day to show your support for LGBTQ+ individuals and to stand against bullying. For this year's theme, we're marking the anniversaries of two incredible milestones: the 35th anniversary of the word "Two-Spirit" and the LGBT Purge—35 years later. It's important to note that Pink Shirt Day, which is held on the last Wednesday of February, is a separate event that also focuses on anti-bullying, but has a broader scope than the Day of Pink.
