

Announcements for Feb. 15th, 2018

Any student interested in joining the Carson chess team at the February 23rd tournament, please see Mrs Robb today in the Counselling Office. Deadline for signing up is tomorrow.

Reminder to all Grade 8, 9, 10 & 11 students. All course programming sheets are due tomorrow, Friday February 16th. Don't miss out on getting the electives that you want, be sure to get your course programming sheet into the counselling office before 3pm on Friday. If you have questions please see your grade counsellor.

Film Noir is a dark and gritty style of performance punctuated by melodramatic, overacting. Theatre Performance 11/12 proudly presents A Lighter Shade of Noir. This Comedy runs Tuesday the 27th to March the 2nd. Tickets will be on sale soon.

Community Service hours are available in the theatre come and visit Mr. Walker in the theatre at lunch.

Hey Carson, did you know 1 in 3600 Canadian children are diagnosed with Cystic Fibrosis. Chances are you don't know what Cystic fibrosis is. The Carson biology club has dedicated their time researching Cystic Fibrosis and creating a brochure for you so that you can learn about it. They are also holding a fundraiser today selling ice cream in the agora for only 2$ for 2 scoops. All of the proceeds will be saved and donated to children's hospital at the end of the year.

The Interact Club Backpack Drive is looking to your block 2 class to collect backpack items for the North Shore Lookout Society. Look to the box in your class for a list of items to be donated!

Are you interested in becoming a Youth Leader within your community? Do you aspire to help those in need? Do you want to learn about food sustainability and its impact for low-income families all while gaining volunteer hours?. Anastasia from Big Brothers will be coming today, during lunch time to talk to students. If you're interested drop by the conference room located next to the counselling office.

Come support your Carson Graham SNR Girls basketball team as they take on McMath in the Crehan Cup Semi finals at Carson today at 8:15pm

Mr. Wong apologizes that the homework club will be moved to room D301 today.