

Announcements for Jan. 11th, 2018

There are boxes in the agora ready to receive your used batteries for our zinc saves lives initiative. Make sure you bring them by this Friday. Thank you!

Want a sneak peak of some artsy personal projects? Our own Bethanea Chou organized an exhibition on the 2nd floor of the city library. Students and staff are invited to support the artists at their reception this Friday at 4pm! Don't miss out, see you there!

Attention all grade 11 and 12 boys who are interested in playing rugby this year. There will be a meeting on Friday at lunch in the Large Gym.

It's the most wonderful time of the year. Yes, it's math contest season. The schedule is posted on the door of room D301. The contests are for grades 9 to 12, but grade 8's may wish to write the grade 9 contest. The first contest is the computer programming contest; entries are due Friday Feb 2. The first math contest is for grades 9 to 11; entries are due Wednesday Feb 7. Please see Mr. Wong for entry forms.

The grade 8 boys basketball team put on a dominant fourth quarter, going on a 15-0 run, to defeat Handsworth 57-44 yesterday. Great game boys!
