

Announcements for Jan. 25th, 2018

Carson, if you see Marcus, Madeline, Maya, Josh, Rowan, Calvin, Kai, Elaina or their grad coach Tate Evans, give them your congrats! Last night Jr Improv team Morris scored into first place following 3 nights of competition. They have virtually locked their spot in Saturday's final at Douglas College! Tonight, Carson will field 2 more teams. Last night was a packed sell-out. Guarantee your tickets on Eventbrite. Break Legs teams Prinsloo and Delos-REyes

Any students in grade 9, 10 or 11 that want to be part of the trip to Costa Rica in 2019 please see Mrs. Strandt or Mr. Bond.

Want to come have a fun time creating stories, poems, graphic novels or lyrics? Want to explore and express your crazy imagination? Then come to the writing club in C205 during Friday lunchtime. It will be a safe, non judgmental place to share or just listen. See Ms Ireland if you have any more questions.

A reminder to ALL students that registered for the Talk at the Top on Grouse Mountain The day of this event is Friday Jan 26th, yes that's this week!!

- Talk at the Top is a youth-led, youth-driven summit on mental health leadership and advocacy. For one day, delegates from across the Sea to Sky will come together to develop leadership skills, increase their mental health knowledge and learn how to decrease the stigma that surrounds mental illness in their schools and communities.

Attention Grade 10 students: applications are now being accepted for the 2018 North Shore Lions Youth Exchange Program. This program is open to grade 10 students on the North Shore and is designed to promote cultural understanding between North Vancouver and Chiba City, Japan. If you are interested in travelling to Japan for two weeks this summer, living with a Japanese family, visiting Tokyo Disneyland, and making lifelong memories, see Ms. Cross today for an application

Are you interested in becoming a community leader? Or knowing more about Canada's health care system? The North Vancouver Rotary club is sponsoring a few people in our community to go to various trips including a leadership camp in Elphinstone and Ottawa. If you're interested and want to see which adventure you qualify for, see your grade counselor for more information!

Meeting for the Talon at the start of lunch today in Mr Weber's room

Personal Project students: if you need an extra desk, outlet or any other special request for the Celebration of IB please submit a request through Managebac by this Friday, January 26th. Presentation boards are also for sale in Ms. Parker's room D104 for $3.
