

Announcements for June 13th, 2019

Carson Students and Staff the final day to return all library materials is this Friday June 14th. Please note this deadline and be sure to return your books on time. Thank you.

Attention all students! Today at lunch the student advocacy space will be holding a cake walk! That's right, a cake walk! Come by the agora at 11:45 and for 2 dollars and 2 minutes of your lunch you could win your choice of one of six cakes! See you there!

Did you know that the Royal Proclamation of Canada was signed in 1763 and stated that the government must negotiate with Indigenous nations, nation to nation. The Royal Proclamation recognized Indigenous rights to their lands. This is still part of Canadian law today.

Tickets! Get your tickets!! Come support our Drama dept and get your tickets for Little Shop of Horrors during lunch today in the Agora. Only $13 for tickets - don't miss out!
