LOCKERS: Cleanout was YESTERDAY. Those students that did not empty and hand in their lock by today are at risk of losing items that might be useful to them. As of Monday, staff will be opening lockers and emptying any contents and it is possible items may end up being donated. Please don't let this happen to you!!!

The very last coffeehouse of the year is today at lunch in the theater! That's right, the final coffeehouse, today at lunch.

The Library is open for quiet study only this week. This includes lunch time. Please return all library books as they are now past due - thank-you.
