

Announcements for Mar. 13th, 2018

Mr. Wong apologizes that homework club is cancelled today. It will continue tomorrow and Thursday

The votes have been counted for Carson's very own orca, and with 53 votes we will be adopting Mike the orca! The Ocean Ambassadors Club wants to thank you for your contributions towards adopting an orca, and remember to listen for more updates after spring break regarding the adoption.

Coffeeshouse is back this week! If you missed last week's show, you have a second chance to see, support and cheer on some amazing and talented performers! Coffeeshouse, this Friday, at lunch, in the theater! See you there.

2 chicks have hatched! Come by D301 outside of class time to visit them.

Reminder to Gr. 11's that your Science 11 project groups need to meet with your teacher mentor this week if not already done so.

Attention grade 12's. If you have not given your height to Ms. McDowell or Mr. Bolivar, please do so by the end of the week. We need to order grad gowns!

Are you adventurous? Like Riding Bikes? Ready to have fun and learn new trails? Join the Carson Mountain Bike Team! There will be an information meeting this Friday, March 16th in the Large Gym at Lunch.

Carson Hoodies are in. If you ordered a Carson hoodie from the Eagles Nest, they have arrived and you can come pick them up Bring your $30 at lunch hour. If you missed out on ordering a hoodie, you can come by because we have some extras, and we are taking new orders.

Did you know over 800 million people go hungry every day worldwide, that's a huge number, but we can help change that. Sign up to join us for Carson's annual Hungry for Change event this year by coming to an information meeting this Wednesday at lunch in room D104, see you there!"

Hey Carson! Are you a motivated, inspired and organized leader? Do you want to improve your resume or university application? Join the Carson Graham Interact Executive team! As an executive member of the Interact Club, a globally recognized organization, you will have the chance to lead a group of students in planning and undertaking initiatives that affect lives both locally and globally. You can find applications outside of Mr. Bjorson's room E308. Applications are due on Friday April 13th.

Carson grads! Grad Council is selling grad gear until today at 130! If you don't purchase by 1:30, no grad gear for you! Don't leave it to the last minute! Come see us during lunch in the agora.

Carson's jack.org chapter is starting a six week running group after Spring Break that will focus on the relationship between physical activity and its positive effect on mental health. Head down to their table in front of the fishbowl at lunch for more info and to sign up. No running experience needed, Carson's jack.org is here to support students journey towards positive mental health. We are always looking to expand our club, interested? See you at lunch in front of the fishbowl!

Valedictorian applications are now available on the Grade 12 section of the Carson Graham website, in the counselling office, and in the library. If you are a grade 12 student interested in representing your grad class at the ceremony on May 31st, please fill out an application before the March 15th deadline.

Any grade 11s wishing to represent their 2019 grad class as a part of grad council, applications are now available on the Grad Council section of the website, in the counselling office, and in the library. The deadline for applications is March 15th.

Attention Grade 12s! The website is now live for you to submit your last words and baby photos for the graduation ceremony. What are last words?? These are the words that are spoken as you walk across the stage at ceremony on May 31st. If you don't want Mr. Bolivar to write them for you, please go to the Grad Ceremony section of the Carson Graham website to upload your words and baby photos by April 30th.
