

Announcements for Nov. 22nd, 2019

Good morning Carson,

It is that time again when we are putting a call out for our annual Christmas Community Dinner. We need over 100 volunteers to help hold this Carson tradition. What is the Carson Graham Christmas Community dinner? It is a dinner that we hold at Carson for people who need a good meal and unconditional love. We serve people from all walks of life some who are homeless, refugees, new immigrants or disabled. We will be discussing the various volunteering jobs that you might want to be part of in Mr. Olsons E201 room next Thursday November 28 at lunch. See you there.

Come join the Student Council on Nov.28 at lunch on the field for a special tug-o-war event with the RCMP!! A great opportunity to get to know who and what the RCMP are and do, and it will be an interesting experience to see who is stronger! Sign-up sheets will be available in the agora today at lunch, so go sign up!! Sign-ups in groups will be available.

Attention all grade 11 and 12 Indigenous students: Willie Lewis will be coming to Carson to share information about Capilano University with you on Monday November 25th. Pizza lunch will be included. Come and eat your lunch and learn about some Post Secondary Information. We will meet in Ms. Bumsted's room.

Attention student volunteers for the 1st Annual North Vancouver School District Jazz Festival, there is a mandatory meeting in the band room at the beginning of lunch today. See you there.

Attention all Grade 12 and 11 students: The University of Alberta will be here on Monday at 11:15 in the fishbowl. If you are interested in attending the University of Alberta, please see their rep in the fishbowl at 11:15 am on Monday.

And don't forget that the University of New Brunswick will be here on Tuesday through the morning break, also in the fishbowl.

On November 29th, the Sustainibliteens will be putting on the "Future Fest"! This event will involve repair workshops, art installations, performances, and loads of other fun, counter-consumerism activities! Carson Graham will be participating by running a Clothing Swap! If you'd like to be a part of this exciting project, you can do so by donating clothing you don't wear anymore and encouraging friends and family to do so! All donations will be accepted in Mr. Bonds Room or the office from now up until the event day!

Have you bought your yearbook yet? You only have until November 30th to purchase your yearbook for $40.00. Buy now and save $10.00!

Hey Carson! This is reminder for today's Lunch with a Scientist with Dani Delaloye who has her master's degree in geological engineering with a focus on underground construction. Come down to the library at lunch and learn more about the applications of science in the real world. Everyone is welcome.

Announcements often celebrate our athletic achievements but Carson has some killer creative talent. From Musicians and visual artists.... to the quiet creative dreamers and the out loud improvisors and actors... Carson, it is time to celebrate the arts. Keep tuned for announcements for Fine Arts Fest. Two weeks filled with reasons to be proud of our community.

Grab friends. Get tickets! Mr Walker and the drama 11/12 class want you to know that opening night is half sold and the remaining tickets will go fast! To pack the house for these 4 shows, all advance tickets will be sold for $5! That's 5 dollars for 45 minutes of crazy fun time. If you are sick of reality, come and watch (BIG VOICE) FAKE NEWS! next week only Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday.

The Maker Club will be hosting an event for the next two Mondays in the Library Classroom at Lunch: Come and learn how to re-purpose books into various creations that you can keep or give as gifts. This event is open to both Staff and Students. Stop by the Library Circulation Desk this week to sign up.
