Carson swept the Buchanan Bowl on Saturday as both teams defeated Handsworth. The JV Eagles won 32-26 on the back of strong performances by Ethan Paat, Kevin Pashandi, Adam Usher and Sean Nordlund. The JV team is now 2-1 and play South Delta on Thursday.

The Varsity team won their game 33-18. Liam Scott was named Buchanan Bowl MVP with strong performances on both offence and defence. Mahyar Hosseini led the way on defence, shutting down a high powered attack with help from Kenneth Balucos and Kwame Mensah.

Touchdowns on offence were scored by Charlie McMillan, Hosseini, Austin James and Ethan Smith. Jade Duque had a game-breaking kick off return to put the game on ice.

This gives the Varsity team two Buchanan Bowl wins in a row as they turn their attention to their next league game on Saturday against Seaquam.

Terry Fox was born in Winnipeg Manitoba in 1958. His family moved to B.C. in 1966, but went back to Manitoba every summer to visit his grandparents. His grandmother Marian taught Terry his family values of hard work, perseverance and respect for elders. Like many Canadian families, Terry's ancestry is Metis.

The characteristics that drove Terry to begin his Marathon of Hope, to help other children fighting cancer, his humble nature, are all qualities Terry shared with his Metis grandmother. Her descendants have taken pride in their Metis heritage, and in 2015, 35 years after Terry's Marathon of Hope was cut short, his brother Darryl accepted yet another honour for Terry. The Metis Nation of B.C. awarded Terry The Order of the Sash, in recognition of his continuing legacy. This is the highest Order one can receive from the Metis community. Please remember to bring a toonie for Terry on Thursday. He ran for all of us, and we will run for him.
