

Announcements for Oct. 2nd, 2019

A reminder to Gr 12 to hand in your career 12 forms to the front office ASAP ASAP.

There will be a short cross country practice today to get geared up for our meet at Windsor tomorrow. Please meet Mr. Hogan outside of the large gym at 3:15 ready to run! New runners are always welcome.

Any students interested in writing an AP exam this year must see Mr Wong in the main office by the end of the week.

The Challenge Exam meeting will be today at lunch in the fishbowl.

Are you a fan of BBQ? Grab one of these beautiful fall days and support you Sr Drama class by ordering some amazing sausage! Every family in Carson has been emailed with information on how to use the school cash online system to order 12 types of gourmet, locally sourced, handmade sausage. YES, it is a sausage sale fundraiser, so please ask your family to support our spring production with some tasty BBQ treats.

Are you interested in film? Then make sure to come to film club today in the theatre at lunch, it's never too late to join

Grade 10 Personal Project! The first process journal entry is due today! Your journal entry should be about the research you have done for your project so far. Make sure to post in the Journal section of your ManageBac page. Find your supervisor if you need help!

This is a reminder to all members of Math Club of your meeting this Wednesday at lunch in Ms. Dai's Room. We will be discussing the upcoming University of Waterloo math contest for November, so make sure to attend! Interested in joining the club or taking the math contest? Drop by for this week's meeting or see Ms. Dai to get the registration forms. All forms are due on Monday, October 28.

Attention all Carson students and staff members! This Friday, October 4th the Interact club will be hosting a screening for the Canada C3: Coast to Coast to Coast documentary in partnership with Rotary North Vancouver and the Students on Ice Foundation. The documentary details the voyage of the Canada C3 from Toronto to Victoria through the Northwest Passage that took place in 2017 to commemorate Canada's 150th anniversary of confederation. It will also be followed by a question and answer period with members of Students on Ice who took part in the voyage! The screening is here in the agora at 6:30pm on Friday, so be sure to but your tickets now by scanning the QR code on posters around the school or finding a member of the Interact club. All proceeds go towards humanitarian causes!
