

Announcements for Oct. 27th, 2017

Junior girls volleyball will be holding a bake sale on Halloween. All items will be $1

Halloween is a time to celebrate with our community and families. We enjoy it when students and staff dress up and have fun. Please dress appropriately.

- Students in costume should be recognizable and we ask students not where full-face masks
 - Replica weapons are not allowed
 - Please dress appropriately - do not where costumes that are discriminatory or offensive in any way.
- Enjoy your Halloween

Calling all Cadets! Ms. Dohm is looking for Cadets to be involved in the Remembrance Day Ceremony on November 10th here at Carson. If this is of interest to you, please come to a brief meeting today in the Main Office.

Congratulations to the Senior Boys Soccer, they beat Argyle 4-1 in the last game of the season. The goals came from Ethan Duggar, Ali Ghiam and two from Lucca Carvalho. The team effort and intensity were outstanding. Congratulation boys.

RCMP Youth Academy applications are now available. The applications are due by Nov 17th! Please come to C104 or visit the school district website for an application

Feeling festive? Why don't you join Multicultural club for an afternoon of pumpkin carving! Come to E308 today, after school. Don't forget to bring your carving tools and pumpkin to participate!

Next Tuesday Oct 31st the Jr. Community Initiative Students will be holding a Halloween Costume Contest in the Agora. Come out and watch or join in for your chance to win cool prizes

Calling all the mathletes. The first math contest of the year is coming up, the Canadian Senior Intermediate Math Contests. It is intended for grades 9 to 12. You can pick up the entry forms in D301 on the desk by the door. Entries are due Tuesday, October 31. Come see Mr. Wong if you have any questions.

Any grade 11 or 12 students interested in a day trip to Vancouver Island University in Nanaimo, please come see Mr. Watson or Ms. McDowell this week.

Grade 12 Winter Formal is coming up on November 21st at the Pinnacle at the Pier. Tickets will be on sale at lunch in the library classroom starting on Oct 30. Please check the Carson Graham Post Secondary Facebook Page for the dates that tickets will be available and for the process for purchasing tickets. Tickets are $90. Guests who are not current Carson Graham students must be approved by Grade 12 counsellors before purchasing tickets. Seating will be first-come first-served and tables fill up quickly!

This is a message for all students: Parent Teacher Interviews are coming upon Thursday, November 2. There are 2 sessions, one from 2-4 and the other from 6-8. We need student volunteers to help out with general duties around the school (this is not the same as being a secretary for one of your teachers). Please sign up in the main office if you are interested or see Ms. Dohm for more details.

Congratulations to the Bantam boys rugby team for defeating Handsworth by a score of 36-19 yesterday. Go Eagles
