"Do you want a free yearbook? Submit your best fall photos to Ms. Bowcott at nbowcott@sd44.ca to enter to win a free yearbook. The winner's photo contest will be featured on a double-page spread in this year's book. The contest will run from October 7th to 31st. The winner will be announced on Tuesday, November 12th"

Interested in writing the upcoming University of Waterloo Math Contest on Wednesday, November 20? Then find Ms. Dai in room D312 to get your registration form. All forms are due on Monday, October, 28!"

Any students interested in writing an AP exam this year must see Mr Wong in the main office by the end of today.

No swim team practice tomorrow morning, that is NO swim team practice tomorrow morning

Are you a fan of BBQ? Grab one of these beautiful fall days and support you Sr Drama class by ordering some amazing sausage! Every family in Carson has been emailed with information on how to use the school cash online system to order 12 types of gourmet, locally sourced, handmade sausage. YES, it is a sausage sale fundraiser, so please ask your family to support our spring production with some tasty BBQ treats.

Attention all Carson students and staff members! This Friday, October 4th the Interact club will be hosting a screening for the Canada C3: Coast to Coast to Coast documentary in partnership with Rotary North Vancouver and the Students on Ice Foundation. The documentary details the voyage of the Canada C3 from Toronto to Victoria through the Northwest Passage that took place in 2017 to commemorate Canada's 150th anniversary of confederation. It will also be followed by a question and answer period with members of Students on Ice who took part in the voyage! The screening is here in the agora at 6:30pm on Friday, so be sure to but your tickets now by scanning the QR code on posters around the school or finding a member of the Interact club. All proceeds go towards humanitarian causes!
