

CARSON GRAHAM
SECONDARY

The Carson Graham Community Initiatives and Leadership students had a great day in the field... On Monday October 24th, students from our leadership class learned to work together through some challenging problems. The students learned about problem solving, communication, leadership and grew together as a team. Students participated at the UBC ropes course and had a great time working together and learning in a non traditional way. More exciting learning opportunities to come!

