

Announcements for Jan. 18th, 2018

Mr. Wong apologizes that homework club is cancelled for today.

Two AMAZING improv shows will be hosted next Wednesday and Thursday to celebrate The Canadian Improv Games Junior Tournament! This regional tournament has been held on Granville Island for several years. Tickets are on event-brite. All students are invited to come to these hilarious, high energy shows. Top scoring teams will qualify for Saturday's final at Douglas College.

All junior Improv teams must come to the theatre today. All Prinsloo, Delos-Reyes, and Morris players, lunch meeting in preparation of your Wednesday and Thursday's show.

Meeting for the upcoming chess tournament is today at lunch in the fishbowl conference room. Please join us if you would like to play chess for Carson.

Are you interested in becoming a community leader? Or knowing more about Canada's health care system? The North Vancouver Rotary club is sponsoring a few people in our community to go to various trips including a leadership camp in Elphinstone and Ottawa. If you're interested and want to see which adventure you qualify for, see your grade counselor for more information!

Join Mrs Strandt and Mr Bond in Spring Break of 2019, for Carson Graham's Science Trip to Costa Rica! Open to all current Grade 9 to 11's, there will be an important information meeting today at lunch in A205.

Carson's annual "DP for a Day" is coming up on February 1st & February 2nd. This is an opportunity for grade 10 students interested in the DP to learn more about the program.

If you have questions about DP for a day or about the program in general, come to a lunch time info session in the library on January 23 at lunch.

Attention Grade 11 and 12 students. Looking for a FREE education?? The Canadian Armed Forces will be visiting Carson today at lunch in the foods room to discuss their Education training programs. This is an opportunity to hear how you can receive your post secondary education, while working and accumulate no cost!!! That's Thursday at lunch in the Library.

How are you doing with your Grad Trans assignments. Come to a tutorial today at lunch in the library to get caught up.

The juvenile boys basketball team defeated Seycove yesterday to improve their league record to 7-2. The boys passed the ball impressively against Seycove's zone as well as playing suffocating defence that never let their opposition come close to making it a game. Practice today has been cancelled and the team members should stay tuned for further practice updates.

Did you know? The digital media academy is a specialty program for students in Grades 11 & 12 who are focused on animation, film, visual effects, graphic design, sound engineering, photography and web design. Sound interesting? There is an Information Evening / OPEN HOUSE on Monday January 22nd at 7:00 pm at the Argyle Secondary School Library. Please see Ms. Cross in counselling for more information.

A reminder that this is the deadline to submit your articles and material for the upcoming edition of the Talon. Please email your articles and photos to Mr. Grant or Mr. Weber.

There will be a meeting in C103 next Tuesday Jan 23rd at 12:55pm for students wishing to learn more about summer Work Experience with the Port of Vancouver. This is a great work experience. Come and find out more! Bring your lunch
