

Hello Eastview Community,

My name is Kate Mosley. I am the new Teacher Librarian at Eastview School. I am so happy to have taken on this role, and am excited for everything that is to come! I thought I would take a moment and introduce myself:

10 facts about your new librarian:

1. Name: Kate Mosley (full name Katherine... just like Ms. Kennah)
2. Birthplace: Vancouver
3. Elementary School: Seymour Heights
4. University: UVic
5. Pets: One naughty black cat named Bosco
6. Favourite authors: Ann-Marie McDonald (adult), Kate DiCamillo (kids)
7. In my spare time: I like to run, knit, and read of course!
8. Favourite non-fiction book: The Story of Stuff by Annie Leonard
9. Favourite thing about being a librarian: helping students find that “just right” book and watching their eyes light up as they imagine the joys of reading ahead of them. Tied with reading a truly amazing story to a class full of eager listeners.
10. Goals for Eastview Library:
 - a. Teach students the ever important skills of how to use a library, and how to look for books
 - b. Inspire them to read, read, read, and to love it!
 - c. Help them to be excellent readers, listeners, and researchers

Well, there you have it. I look forward to getting to know the students over the year, and to really nestling in to the Eastview community.

I would absolutely LOVE to have some parent volunteers in the library. There is much to be done and some help would be wonderful. Please call (604-903-3520) or email (kmosley@sd44.ca) me if you would like to help out, or if you have any questions.

Also, if any parents are interested in coming in and reading, sharing stories, or sharing information with any classes, that would be great. There is nothing more inspiring than a human library!

Thanks so much for taking the time to read this. Please drop by if you have a moment before or after your parent-teacher interview! I will be in the library until 5:00 on Wednesday and Thursday.

Oh, check out the new and in-progress super cool Eastview Library website!

Sincerely,
Kate
