Dear Parents/Guardians of students in Grades 3 – 7:

The students in Grade 3 – 7 will be participating in a presentation offered free of charge by the No Time For That (NTFT) Anti-Bullying Society on Wednesday, October 29th from 9:15 – 10:15.

NTFT's school presentations combine the transformative power of story and song to engage students and staff in a 30–45 minute session, followed by a 15-minute Q&A. The presentation explores:

- Bullying awareness and prevention
- Mental health and resilience
- Empathy, inclusion, and conflict resolution
- Identity, visibility, and empowerment

NTFT's mission is to empower students and educators to foster kind, empathetic, and inclusive school communities, and was proudly founded by award-winning performing artist and speaker Elsie Morden, who brings a deeply personal and powerful voice to the work after surviving years of traumatic bullying. Elsie's heartfelt storytelling and authentic approach create lasting impact, helping students feel seen, understood, supported, and inspired.

If you have any questions, or are wanting more information about this presentation, please feel free to contact me, Kelly Munro, via email at kmunro@sd44.ca.

Sincerely,

Kelly Munro
