

Program of Inquiry - Norgate Xwemélch'stn Community Elementary

K	Who We Are human relationships including families, friends, communities, and cultures	Where We Are in Place and Time	How We Express Ourselves the ways in which we discover and express ideas, feelings, nature, culture, beliefs and values	How the World Works the natural world and its laws	How We Organize	Sharing the Planet rights and responsibilities in the struggle to share finite resources with other people and other living things
Central Idea	Roles and responsibilities help our communities to work together		People share a sense of identity through stories	The motion of an object can be altered through design		People can successfully share environments with animals
Key Concepts	responsibility function		perspective connection	form function causation		change connection responsibility
Related Concepts	communities roles		identity traditions	properties design motion		migration behaviour
Subject Areas	Science Social Studies Physical, Social, Personal		Language Social Studies Arts	Mathematics Science Arts		Social Studies Science Language
Lines of Inquiry	who is in our school, family, and community what is a role and responsibility how can people work together		components of a story different ways to tell stories family stories and culture	ways to describe materials how properties relate to use designing for motion		features of our local animals and environment behaviour of animals how our choices impact animals