Principal's report: Pam Craven

- Intern reports are delayed in being sent out as the self-evaluation piece is taking longer.
- Flex time is going really well. The children are all enrolled for this term.
- Jesse Miller came to talk to the grades the 8 and 9 together then 10-12, he is doing a parent evening at Windsor in Feb 2018. Discussed bring in liaison officers to discuss legal aspects of social media with children.
- Nov. 2nd is Parent Teacher Interviews were only half booked, looking at a possibility of increasing the time slot to 10 mins
- Remembrance day assembly went well with lots of participation from the international students as well.
- School fees, some are increasing where there is a need, some are being removed.
- additional email being sent out for the children to complete an on-line survey about course selection next year, as feedback is important to continue to offer courses the children want.

Financial Report: Dan Dandar was absent from the meeting, updates planed for next pac meeting.

Seycove Auction

- Kim Tattrie & Tree Cleland are heading the auction
- Date is Feb. 24, 2018 and theme is Wild Wild West!
