Course Programming

Course Programming

Selecting a program of studies is an important process that should involve students, parents, teachers, administrators and counsellors. After careful consideration, courses should be chosen based on the student's strengths, interests and future requirements. Students are asked to list alternative choices on their course selection sheets, as their preferred choices may not schedule due to timetable constraints. Courses with low enrolment may not be offered. Students are advised to review course programming information carefully when planning their courses for next year.

Did you know Seycove is home to an internationally recognized enhanced program?

Maybe you've heard of it, but do you know what exactly is PLP?

PLP is a mainstream program that challenges students to become learners.

Content Mastery

Students apply new knowledge to real-world situations.

Critical Thinking and Problem Solving

Students consider a variety of approaches to produce innovative solutions.

Academic Mindset

Students feel a sense of belonging and the motivation to persist through their school work.

Take a closer look at PLP... it is probably different than what you thought.

- PLP is for all curious learners
- Survey data shows PLP students are consistently more engaged, more enthusiastic, and more invested in learning than their peers
- Universities like UBC give PLP students special consideration during admission evaluation
- Students gain unique learning experiences, unavailable to other students, that set them apart from the crowd on university and scholarship applications
