

Daily Announcements – Thursday, December 4, 2025

- Hey Sutherland, the days are getting shorter, and the nights are growing colder, which means it is time to celebrate the holidays at Sutherland's Winter Concert! This is a reminder of our Music Department Concert TONIGHT December 4th @ 6:30pm in the large gym. Doors open @ 6:00pm. Admission is FREE with suggested donation. Come on out and enjoy some holiday tunes such as themes from Home Alone, the Polar Express and from the queen of the holidays herself, Mariah Carey. All staff and students are invited to attend.
- Sutherland Secondary, its almost time for your Graduation Portrait Sessions! Appointments are available from December 5 – December 8. Students and families can book online. Please refer to our website for the link.
- Attention Sutherland Students and Staff!
The Art Club is thrilled to announce its annual Seasonal and Christmas Card Sale from December 8th to 19th. These beautiful, handcrafted cards are perfect for spreading holiday cheer and brightening your season. The sale will be held by the front office during lunch breaks. All proceeds will go directly to support the Visual Arts department. Thank you for your support!
- A reminder to all Grads of our movie night on Dec. 11th. Hope to see you all there!!
- Hey Sabres! Come unwind with therapy dogs after school on Monday, December 8 in Mr. Gunka's room. The visit runs until 4:00 p.m., and space is limited, so arrive early to make sure you get a chance to say hi.
- Chess Club meets every Thursday at Lunch in Mr. Moncado's room C301. All player levels are welcome, whether you are a pro or novice. Remember Chess Club Thursdays at lunch in C301!
- Boys Club today after school in room C306. See you there.
- Hands on the Land will be meeting in the library at lunch. We will be watching episode 3 of North of North the comedy about a young Inuk woman. Join us- all allies are welcome.
