- This Saturday is the 30th anniversary of National Indigenous Peoples Day.

It's a time to recognize and celebrate the traditions, cultures and contributions of First Nations, Inuit and Métis. National Indigenous Peoples Day takes place on the summer solstice, the longest day of the year. For generations, many First Nations, Inuit and Métis communities have celebrated their cultures, languages, and traditions at this time of year. The summer solstice holds deep spiritual and cultural significance for many Indigenous Peoples, marking a time of renewal, connection, and celebration.

- Happy last day of highschool grade 12's!!! We are hoping to meet as a Grad class on the back field after you have your hot dog to sign white shirts (which we will provide) and have some fun! Have a great day!!!
