Now a worldwide movement, Meatless Monday seeks to raise awareness of the impact of overconsumption of animal products, and to encourage lowering our intake of meat, beginning with just once a week. We coordinate with our cafeteria to present meatless options, and run information sessions to increase everyone’s knowledge for healthier lifestyles.