

Daily Announcements

Here are your Windsor Morning Announcements for Friday Jan 31st

1. Senior Boys Basketball beat Carson Last night 75 to 54 to move to 10 – 0 in league play. Come support your team Monday at Argyle for their final league game and for 1st place in the league.
2. Social Justice is holding a bake sale today in lunch.
3. The first of three Ultimate Frisbee Drop-Ins kicks off today at 3:15 in the bubble! Open to all students from Grades 8 to 12, these co-ed sessions are a great opportunity to sharpen your skills and have fun. If you're thinking of trying out for the Junior or Senior team this year, attending these drop-ins is highly recommended.
4. The first of three Ultimate Frisbee Drop-Ins kicks off today at 3:15 in the bubble! Open to all students from Grades 8 to 12, these co-ed sessions are a great opportunity to sharpen your skills and have fun. If you're thinking of trying out for the Junior or Senior team this year, attending these drop-ins is highly recommended.
5. Senior boys rugby meeting TODAY at lunch for all interested players Grades 11 and 12 Ms. Anderson's classroom E410.
6. Deadline is today for the Windsor-Obu Exchange for 2025/26.
7. Monday, February 3rd students are able to input their course request into MyEd, Instructions are on the Windsor Website.
8. Students in grades 10 and 11 interested in taking Leadership 11/12 next year - you are invited to attend an information session on Monday Feb.3rd in the library at lunch to hear more about the class. See Mr. Fong or Ms. Wood if you have any questions.
9. Yearbook forms are due this weekend!! This includes media consent, grad captions and parent dedication messages and more! Don't forget to order your copy now!