

Daily Announcements

Here are your Windsor Morning Announcements for Monday Feb 24th

Congratulations to the Senior Boys' AAA Sea to Sky Championship
Lucas Chung, Oscar Rouillard All – Stars
Perrin Taylor - MPV

1. In 2008, British Columbia proclaimed our first provincial anti-bullying day, and the movement has continued to grow. The last Wednesday each February is Canada's officially-recognized national Pink Shirt/anti-bullying day. Many countries recognize specific days for raising awareness about the prevention of bullying and promoting kindness and inclusion. In Canada, many students have heard the Pink Shirt Day message from kindergarten through to their high school graduation. Tomorrow, Wednesday February 26th please wear your Pink Shirts to show that you "choose kindness". Thank you Windsor!
2. Students in Grades 8-12 will have a homeroom on Tuesday, February 25 during tutorial to complete your Student Self-Reflection of the Core Competencies for the Term 2 report card.
3. Join us on February 27 as Windsor's talented performers light up the stage with incredible acts, including a dance to Footloose and musical performances Tickets are on sale now! Get yours for $5 at lunch in the Caf.
4. Grade 10 to 12 students are invited to hear about the University of Calgary on Tues Feb 25th at lunch in room 412.
5. If you have signed up to write a Math Contest for grades 9 - 11 next Wednesday, please check your MS Teams for information on where and when to write the contest. If you have any questions, please see Dr. Pruner in room 408.
6. It's Freedom to Read Week! From the 23rd of February to March 1st, in Canada we celebrate the right to read freely and explore different ideas without censorship. Windsor Library is celebrating by featuring books that have been challenged or banned. Stop by to check out these powerful books and take part in promoting the freedom to read!
7. Senior Girls Soccer last tryout session is being held Wednesday Feb 26th at 3:15 on the field.

- 8. Students in Grades 8-12 will have a homeroom on Tuesday, February 25 during tutorial to complete your Student Self-Reflection of the Core Competencies for the Term 2 report card.
