

BIG IDEAS

Listening and viewing with intent supports our acquisition of a new language.	Language and culture are interconnected and shape our perspective, identity, and voice.	The communicative context determines how we express ourselves.	Exploring diverse forms of cultural expression promotes greater understanding of our own cultural identity.	Developing proficiency in a new language provides unique opportunities for careers, travel, personal growth, and study abroad.

COURSE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES:

A. Plagiarism and Cheating:

Students are expected to abide by the Policy on Plagiarism and Cheating as outlined in their agenda books. In addition, students are expected to abide by the following guidelines as they specifically pertain to the Modern Languages Department:

1. The use of translators, electronic or otherwise, is strictly prohibited on assignments handed in for marks.
2. Work previously corrected or enhanced by a tutor may not be handed in as your own work.
3. If it is suspected that an assignment has been enhanced by the aid of a translator or tutor, the student may be asked to reproduce similar work in the presence of the teacher. Rough copies and other work may also be requested in order to corroborate the authenticity of the student's work.

B. Tests

After an absence, arrangements must be made by the student, with the teacher to make up the missed test. If the student does not complete the test, an "F" will be assigned. Students should see the classroom teacher the day they return to class to set test dates for missed work.
