

SEL & Trauma Informed Strategies (Elementary)

*These suggestions below are provided for reflection, discussion and implementation.

Check the strategies that you are already doing in your classroom and circle or highlight the strategies you would like to try.

Teacher: _____

Date: _____

To Support a Sense of Belonging: <input type="checkbox"/> Create a supportive, respectful climate ... include student voice <input type="checkbox"/> Greet students individually at the start of the day <input type="checkbox"/> Regular check-ins with students <input type="checkbox"/> Establish a clear and concise class management system ...Visually represented, consistently followed, embedded across different settings <input type="checkbox"/> Teach and embed the code of conduct into daily routine so students clearly understand expectations <input type="checkbox"/> Be authentic ...express your own feelings and acknowledge your own mistakes <input type="checkbox"/> Collaborate with parents/guardians to understand the students’ context <input type="checkbox"/> Speak with prior teachers to understand what has worked previously <input type="checkbox"/> Plan lessons with all students in mind <input type="checkbox"/> Have private conversations with individual students to plan, connect, and offer encouragement <input type="checkbox"/> Give positive reinforcement ...look for the good <input type="checkbox"/> Help your students identify at least 2 trusted adults...Connectedness to adults in school predicts increase success <input type="checkbox"/> Hold Class Meetings/Circles ... to provide sharing opportunities that build relationships <input type="checkbox"/> Include personal wellness discussions as much as possible ____________________	To Support Self-Management & Self-Regulation: <input type="checkbox"/> Create a calm environment -clutter free, soft lighting, neutral colours <input type="checkbox"/> Be mindful of stressors and potential trauma of the student <input type="checkbox"/> Daily schedule is clearly visible and special events are highlighted <input type="checkbox"/> Teach lessons on how the brain connects to self-regulation <input type="checkbox"/> Incorporate scheduled and spontaneous brain and body breaks into instruction...outside time, Go Noodle, Cosmic Kids Yoga, Just Dance Video etc. <input type="checkbox"/> Allow access to food, bathroom, water as needed <input type="checkbox"/> Offer flexible seating (stools, wiggle cushions, standing) <input type="checkbox"/> Offer and teach how to use sensory tools ...e.g., fidgets <input type="checkbox"/> Help student(s) create their own self-reg. ‘toolbox’ <input type="checkbox"/> Teach and support student(s) to identify ‘Size of Problem’ and appropriate reactions...Zones, Second Step <input type="checkbox"/> Collaborate with other staff to create a strength-based plan to support student success, identify what’s working, collect anecdotal data Tools to support - Timers /Work-Break schedules / Token economy / Star or Sticker Charts / First... then...../ Classroom Cozy Corners / “Social Thinking” curriculum / School-level behaviour Support Plans / Soft starts / SEL programs i.e., Second Step, Open Parachute, EASE, Zones of Regulations, Mind-Up, etc.____________________
To Support Relationship Skills & Social Awareness: <input type="checkbox"/> Teach, model and practice how to work in groups... contribute, compromise and take responsibility <input type="checkbox"/> Teach, model and practice inclusion and acceptance of diversity <input type="checkbox"/> Organize partners and groups with careful consideration to students’ social emotional needs and learning styles <input type="checkbox"/> Model empathy and perspective-taking language in the classroom <input type="checkbox"/> Use problem solving strategies ... Second Step, WITS, Kelso’s Choice <input type="checkbox"/> Use restorative practices to help students prevent and resolve conflicts <input type="checkbox"/> Support student to reflect on behaviour (in words, writing or drawing) <input type="checkbox"/> Praise when student takes responsibility for actions <input type="checkbox"/> Frame behaviours in a positive manner, not as a deficit...e.g. “Please show whole body listening” instead of “stop talking” <input type="checkbox"/> Teach how to apologize and make amends...understand that the best apology involves feelings, is genuine, specific, personalized Tools to Support – Use Reflection sheets / ‘Gotchas’ / Use common language between home & school / Class jobs_______________	To Support Self- Awareness: <input type="checkbox"/> Help your student(s) identify their strengths and stretches and related needs <input type="checkbox"/> Differentiate assignments based on student-identified strengths and learning styles <input type="checkbox"/> Teach emotional literacy, identify emotions...what they look like and feel like <input type="checkbox"/> Teach emotional management ...how emotions affect behaviour <input type="checkbox"/> Teach and model helpful and realistic self-talk <input type="checkbox"/> Teach, model and practice “I” statements <input type="checkbox"/> Model and practice self-advocacy skills... i.e., asking for help when it’s needed / connect this to their “Go To” adults <input type="checkbox"/> Introduce and practice ‘Growth Mindset’ language and concepts <input type="checkbox"/> Teach how to give and constructive receive feedback <input type="checkbox"/> Teach goal-setting steps <input type="checkbox"/> Celebrate achievements Tools to support – Daily Zones Reflections sheets / ‘Body Mapping’ (physical responses) / Individual self-regulation Tool Kits / Personal Journals____________________

