*That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly*

scarce heard amid the guns below.

A collection of dried poppy flowers in various colors including red, white, and blue, arranged on a white background. The flowers are scattered across the frame, with some showing their dark centers and others appearing as simple, flat petals. The stems are thin and green, some with small buds.

A black military helmet is the central focus, resting on a grey, textured surface. Several red poppies are scattered around the helmet, some on the helmet itself and others on the surface. The background is blurred, showing more of the helmet and the surface.
